Milan, March 19. N. S.

THe Thirteen Imperial Battalions which are deſign'd for Piedmont, continue their March, and are already arriv'd in this Dutchy. Thoſe Troops which came from the Mantuan, have receiv'd their Recruits, and are now compleated. His Imperial Majeſty has given Orders for the making an Inventory of the Goods and Effects belonging to the Marquis of Caravaggio, who ſome time ſince retir'd to Rome with his only Daughter, who is the laſt Heireſs of the Houſe of Sforza; but the Reaſons for ſuch his Commands are variouſly reported. The Earl of Peterborough being in ſome meaſure recover'd from his Indiſpoſition, ſet forwards on the Eleventh of this Inſtant for Turin. Abraham Stanyan, Eſq; the Queen of Great Britain's Plenipotentiary, and Monſieur Vander Meer, Plenipotentiary for the States General, have held frequent Conferences with the Miniſters of his Imperial Majeſty, and with thoſe of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Savoy, ſometimes ſeperately, and ſometimes in the Preſence of both of them, and ſeveral Accounts of large Sums of Mony expended by his Royal Highneſs for the maintenance of the Imperial Troops, have been preſented to the Imperial Miniſters, and divers Equivalents have been propos'd for the Vigevano, but the whole Affair is put off till after Eaſter, when the Conferences will be re-aſſumed.

Genoa, March 26. N. S. We have Advice here, that General Zumjungen, having firſt taken the Poſts about Porto Ercole, and form'd the Blockade of the Place with four thouſand Imperialiſts, had erected two Batteries, each of ſeven Pieces of Cannon, with which he fir'd upon the Town; whoſe Garriſon did not amount to above five or ſix hundred Men, ſo that he hop'd to be Maſter of it in a few Days. However, the Governour had ſent by Sea all uſeleſs Perſons to Civita Vecchia, and was reſolv'd to defend it to the utmoſt Extremity. It is confirm'd from Milan, that eight thouſand Foot, and fifteen hundred Horſe, have receiv'd Orders to embark at Vado for Catalonia. The Privateers of Holland and Zeland, have taken and carried ſeveral French Prizes into Leghorne.

Hamburgh, April 1. N. S. It being reported here that the King of Denmark has given expreſs Orders for ſeizing all Veſſels belonging to this City, wherever his Ships ſhall meet them out of the limits of the Empire, the Council of Commerce aſſembled this Morning, to deliberate concerning ſuch Meaſures as might be proper to be taken on this Occaſion; and it is ſaid they have come to a Reſolution, to make a Deputation to the Miniſters of the Maritime Powers which are reſident here, to deſire their Aſſiſtance and good Offices with his Daniſh Majeſty to ſtop any ſuch Proceeding. The famous Doctor Meyer, who has been ſo remarkable during the Troubles of this City, is dead at Stetin. The Advices from Poland continue ſtill very dubious, in relation to the Sueditſh Affairs in Turky; for tho' ſome affirm that the King of Sueden is departed from Bender, yet others aſſure us to the contrary, and that he had ſeiz'd on a Meſſenger ſent from Conſtantinople by the Hoſtages of the Czar of Muſcovy to King Auguſtus, and taken all his Diſpatches; that the Palatine of Kiovia was likewiſe at Bender, but his Troops were in Vallachia on this ſide of Jaſſi; that the Coſſacks remain'd ſtill upon the Pruth, and the Muſcovites near Bialazerkiew, all being quiet on the Frontiers of Turky. Other Accounts ſay, that his Sueditſh Majeſty will be on his March from that Place very ſuddenly. The Count de Vellingk has receiv'd Letters from Bender, dated the firſt of the laſt Month, which import, that notwithſtanding the ſurrender of Aſoph, all things at Conſtantinople appear very favourable for the Intereſts of the King his Maſter. They write from Radom, that the Tribunal aſſembled there to regulate the Payment of the Army, had on the Twenty ſixth of the laſt Inſtant, come to a Reſolution to pay Eight Quarters Arrears to the Army of the Crown, but that the Payment would be by Aſſignations on the ſeveral Palatinates. Monſieur de Brebendoffski, Great Treaſurer of Poland, who has all along Teſtify'd his great Zeal for the Intereſts of King Auguſtus, dy'd at Radom ſome Days ago. Several Senators, who have been choſen by the leſſer Diets, are ſetting out from that Place, to aſſiſt at the General Diet which is to be held at Warſaw, and, it is hop'd, will meet with ſucceſs, in relation to the Propoſals to be made them on the part of his Poliſh Majeſty. They write from Berlin, that there are Diſcourſes concerning a Marriage between the Hereditary Prince of Heſſe Caſſel, and the Margravine Dowager of the Margrave Philip; but the Mourning upon the account of his Death being likely to continue, there can be no more ſaid of it at preſent; but only it is expected, by that means the Diſputes between the Court of Berlin, and the Princeſs of Freizeland, concerning the Inheritance of the late King William, may be brought to an amicable Concluſion.

Berlin, April 4. N. S. Before the Departure of the Prince of Heſſe Caſſel, on his Journey for Holland, his Pruſſian Majeſty made him a preſent of Two thouſand Duckats, and two very fine Horſes, with a Requeſt, that he would take that Court in his way, upon his return from Flanders. The Margravine Dowager of the late Margrave Philip, went lately to Deſſau, to ſee the Prince of Anhalt, her Brother, who has been indiſpoſed of an Ague, but is in a fair way of Recovery. It is reported here, that the Czar is to come ſhortly into theſe Parts, and to have an Interview with the King in ſome of his Country Palaces.

Bruſſels, April 15. N. S. All things in theſe Countries are preparing for the forming of the Grand Army in Flanders. We have Advice from Douay, that the Earl of Albemarle, the Prince of Holſtein, Monſieur Vegelin de Claerbergen, and the Generals Cadogan, Ivoy and Chanclos, were arriv'd at that Place, with ſeveral Regiments of the Frontier Garriſons. Theſe General Officers all march'd hence on the Twelfth Inſtant, at the Head of Nine Battalions
